Democracy Illustrated. The best specimen of modern democracy that we remember to have seen, was exhibited at Albany on the eve of the recent State election in New York. It contained, in fact, all the elements which go to illustrate the character of the party leaders, and their methods of carrying on a campaign. It embraced recklessness, murder, falsehood and forgery in about equal proportions—and as far transcended common mendacity and lying, as modern Lecompton democracy surpasses the mild pro-slavery article of the days of Polk and Dallas and the Mexican War.

At the time referred to—a day or two previous to the New York election, when there was no time to expose the falsity of the thing—the Albany Argus, the democratic central organ of the State, was guilty of the atrocious meanness and wickedness of publishing the following, in quotation marks, as an extract from Senator Seward's recent speech at Rochester:

"Let us anticipate the blow by invading the States of South Carolina and Georgia, and emancipating their slaves who are toiling on the rice plantations there. The two principles cannot live. Either Slavery must triumph and become universal, or emancipation must be carried into every State. If the Slaveholders in North must die. Then down with the South. Delenda est Carthago. And if the compact of the confederation stands in the way, tear it to pieces. There is no faith to be kept with slaveholders. In politics that only is obligatory which is expedient."

Our readers have seen Mr Seward's speech, and they need not be told that it contains no such sentiments—has not even a line of any such language. It is a bold, wicked, deliberate FORGERY, and was justly denounced as such by the Albany Journal at the earliest possible moment, which, however, was not until after election. What do honest, intelligent and candid men think of a party and its organs which can resort to such atrocious means of deceiving the people? Are they not worthy of the political doom which the people will pronounce in 1860?

A Review of the Sixth District Campaign.

A writer in the Calais Advertiser (J S F) now that the official vote has been declared, and (as he says) "even the Frenchmen have done voting," gives a spirited resume of the campaign and its results—from which we must treat our readers to an extract or two. The contest was in some respects the most remarkable on record, and is a theme worthy the able and facile pen of the chronicler:

The plan of the campaign was to tone down the salient principles of the democratic party—to smooth off the rough edges of its obnoxious practices,—to repudiate its recently measures with regard to the Territories, and boldly oppose the whole system of democratic proscription in behalf the interests of the long shore men engaged in the fisheries. Thus ignoring whatever was unpopular, and getting rid of those features which attached to the advocacy of everything that constitutes Democracy at Washington, it modestly proposed to run Mr Bradbury on his personal popularity. * *

In order to carry out the programme, and make it effectual, it became necessary to land Mr Bradbury and locate Mr Foster, and there was no fairer subject, by anybody engaged in electioneering for Mr Bradbury, to practice upon than the article of "faith. They said their creeds resembled, and if they did not come near to do it was because they had none to compare. Now I smile at worshipping, in church or out, (they have not yet provided themselves with the mode for worship used by Experience Bourne,) "I believe in Mr Bradbury, the accomplice of," said Mr Burns, irreverently, and as he said so, I know how he came to be an ass." The tone was sanctified in his hat, into which the congregation supposed he was shaving the prayers for the pious members of the National Democrats are bound to do. "I believe in President Buchanan, great source of office, and his supporter, Mr Bradbury," dimly dreaded the Rev Doctor holding office of the Machine Union. "Servus in democracy; and Col Bradbury is the prophet," echoed the gallant militaire head of the party in Hancock; while the colored candidate hummed

"Resistance thrilled,
Affection stood,
And Freedom's banner fired the sphere."

Mr Bradbury seems to have been well aided from abroad. He evidently had his look of men in waste. The democratic side of the Boundary line sent Mr Hancock the draftsman, and Mr Shepley and Mr John A Peters were dressed as expert engineers for the official decision of the Aroostook. Mr Peters' seat was at the wrong end of the table. Hemmed by until the last gun of the battle was fired, or, to do justice to the metaphor, until the last glass was drunk, and the last vote bought, deposited and counted. He stood as chief mourner in the democratic funeral. Another illustration, if it were furnished to the world of the iron hoof of the edge that young converts bear old creeds, is put and out in zeal and enthusiasm. There never was such a democratic majority among the Frenchmen before. * *

The Aroostook would cut down Mr Foster's majority, but there is nothing in the election that indicates wavering on the part of the constituency. He can go back to Washington well assured that his course is fully approved.

Such being the general characteristics of the campaign, Mr Bradbury, by way of doing just his duties, and tapering off gradually, has not added a judicious capital appendage to the shape of a compliment to the Grand Jury of his County; and having finished a sketch of the head of a body we may as well say a word of the tail, and thus describe the entire animal.

Mr Bradbury complains to the Grand Jury that the Elsworth American and some others during the contest, that he had not money to obtain the support and countenance of Mr George B Peters of Ellsworth. Mr Peters, it seems, is the great dictator of all professional business, took the stump and forcibly advocated the election of Mr Bradbury, and the Ellsworth American intimated that it had no doubt Mr Bradbury paid him a hundred dollars for his services. We said that Mr Bradbury had a right to do so. What or the service performed was worth the amount was a matter for Mr Bradbury's own consideration; but we have no disposition to make a will just question, of course it is none of the business.

This is the "head and front" of the offense charged in the indictment now on the Clerk's files of Machias.

The newspaper it seems, was mistaken. It confessed its mistake in the very next issue. The mistake was in stating that a hundred dollars was paid to George S Peters. It should have said that it was paid to John A Peters, and then the statement would have been correct. It seems the hundred dollars was paid to him by way of outfit for the embassy to the Aroostook, already described.

And we submit to all gentlemen of good taste that it is not a little ludicrous to charge upon the American as a crime that it stated Mr Bradbury paid Mr Peters a hundred dollars for advocating this election in Hancock County, and in the same breath sell sawbucks, and of course just as the payment of a similar sum to Mr Peters' brother for the purpose of sending him off on the French mission. If the mission payment was right, legally and morally, where was the crime or disgrace in the imputed payment for advocacy? To untutored minds stumping democracy, even high if charged with the usual combustible of democratic warfare, seems really to be immoral as the wholesale bribery and swindling practised, election day, in the St John river settlements.

Considered in connection with the history of the campaign, the complaint is absurd, and when it was aired in court it first suddenly became aware of the fact. They were bedeviled, and cowed, and driven, but all to no purpose. They would not bring the action to trial. Mr Sawyer attended promptly some without being sent for, and after several days of ineffectual effort, was obliged to go home an untried man. The tender, bruised parents had the power of wind swing their ill favored tenting from public observation, and they wisely chose to do so.

Had Mr Sawyer been indicted for the celebrated "Slippery Hitch," there would have been more sense in the proceeding. That was one of the brilliant conceptions of the campaign, and must have had a damaging effect. It is supposed that this indictment was intended to punish him for the serious offence, but if so, it would have had more dignity, although probably no more force, to have had the intention expressed in the indictment. We would suggest to the County Attorney to amend the indictment by sending it to Ellsworth and having the "slippery hitch" picture imprinted on the back of it, so that when the jury consider the offence charged they may have before them the real crime plainly exhibited in all its original hideousness.

Election Items.

New York. Twenty-five or twenty six Republican members of Congress are elected, and three anti-Lecompton Democrats, to five or six Buchanan men. At the last election, 21 Republicans to 12 Democrats were chosen. The Republicans gain five members, without reference to the Douglas men. The Opposition majority in the State of New York, as shown by the majorities in the several Congressional districts, is upwards of 60,000.—The Republican majority is over 20,000.

Iowa. Both members are surely Republican. The Dubuque three of the 2d, ultimo estimates, upon the strength of returns, most of which are official, with only one democratic county to hear from, the majority of Wm Vandever, in the 2d Congressional District, at more than 2,600. This is a Republican gain of nearly 1,000 upon the vote for Governor last year. Samuel R. Curtis's majority in the 1st District is likely to be between 500 and 600.

Illinois. It is reported that notwithstanding the Douglas men have carried the Legislature, the Republicans have a popular majority in the State. One despatch says the Republican majority is over 5000; although the democrats claim a small majority the other way.

Wisconsin. The Republicans have 3,000 or 10,000 majority in the popular vote; but in consequence of the folly of some Republicans in supporting a Douglas democrat for Congress, it is feared we have lost one district.

Minnesota. The Minnesotian of Oct. 30, says that the Republicans have elected 49 members of the Minnesota House, and the democrats of all shades, regular and irregular, just 29—with two members doubtful. The Senate will be democratic by one majority.—The Republicans are therefore of at least seventeen majority on joint ballot. A Republican United States Senator will succeed James Shields, if there is any question.

Indiana. The new Legislature of Indiana stands politically as follows: In the Senate, there are 25 Opposition to 22 Democrats; and in the House, 51 Opposition and 52 democrats of all shades, of whom four are anti-Lecompton men. The St. Louis Democrat learns on good authority, that "the contested election of Dright and Fitch will be repudiated by a joint resolution, and two gentlemen sent to Washington to contest their seats."

A New Line of Telegraph Proposed. Mr. F. N. Gisborne, who claims to have originated the Atlantic Telegraph, is now in Boston, and has a project for a submarine telegraph from that city or from Cape Ann to Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and thence by land line to Halifax. The distance would be 230 miles to Yarmouth, and 260 thence to Halifax—and over this line it is proposed to take the foreign and other news, instead of by the shore line of about a thousand miles in extent.

A public meeting on the subject was held at the Merchants' Exchange, on Monday, and adjourned for one week.

Mr. Gisborne thinks that Trinity Bay is not the most favorable point at which to land the Atlantic Telegraph cable. Cape Race Sablon on the Southern coast of Labrador, is one hundred miles nearer to Ireland, and might be connected with Nova Scotia by submarine cable of 240 miles, which would obviate the necessity of relying upon a line through the wilds of Newfoundland.

Six hundred and thirty-nine persons were naturalized in Boston during the month preceding election; nine-tenths of them became voters in the Fifth Congressional District—one of it is last number, at least nine-tenths the votes for Mr. Heard. So says the Daily Advertiser.

The Lawrence Herald of Freedom says that a great amount of syrup has been manufactured in Kansas this summer; been the Calmet sugar cane.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

In Lemon Case. At the Police Court, yesterday, in the case of the liquor seizures from the Pierce Messrs. E. K. & E. Millett, a decision was rendered till Tuesday, Nov. 13d, the law requiring that in cases of seizure, the liquors shall be libelled, and ten days public notice given, before trial. The respondents gave bail in $100, for appearance, at the examination. The Union states that the liquors seized are worth $1600. We understand there were just 200 gallons taken, and that the quality was of the poorest description. By the Union's estimate, it was all six dollar brandy.

A Case to be Remembered. At the Police Court, yesterday afternoon, James T. Kellen was brought up by the Police, on a charge of larceny in the night time, from a dwelling-house. It seems that on Sunday night, Kellen went to the Cottage House, kept by Mr. A. R. Greenough, and was admitted; but sometime during the night he left the house, taking with him a coat belonging to John Mirrogen, and valued at not more than five or six dollars, and was arrested the next day, in Wall Street, with the coat on his arm. At the examination, Kellen admitted that he took the coat, but not with the intention of stealing it—being in liquor at the time. The Court could not receive this an excuse, but ordered him to recognize in the sum of $500 for appearance for trial at the February term of the Supreme Court. Thus a fatal appetite for liquor has brought a once sober and industrious young man into imminent peril of the State Prison.

A Fine Set of Books.—We noticed, yesterday, at the Bookstore of Messrs. David Bugbee & Co., in this city, an elegant set of books just completed for the St Anthony Falls Water Power Company. So carefully was the work done, that a thorough examination failed to show a single defect, either in the ruling or binding; and we think we can safely say that there is no similar establishment in New England that can turn out a better finished set of books. Is manufacturing firm, substantial, handsome work. Mr Bugbee has few equals, and we think the Water Power Company did well to pass by the manufactories in New York and Boston and produce their work at Bugbee & Co's, where they are sure to have it done in A No 1 style.

Sudden Death. Mr Jacob Rigg, truckman, of Portland, died very suddenly on Sunday last, by strangulation. He had been for a long time afflicted with a disease in the throat and of the lungs. He started from his chair and ran around the room for many minutes gasping for breath, and then fell dead to the floor.

Confirmation. On Sunday last five persons were confirmed in St. Stephens Church, Portland, by Bishop Burgess.

Mr Daniel C Haselting, the engineer who was killed on the Grand Trunk on Monday morning, leaves a wife and several children in Gorham, N. H. The Advertiser says: "He was a man universally respected and beloved, and was one of the most faithful employees on the road. The parents of the deceased reside in this city."

Another Bear.—Captain John Moore, of Gouldsboro, killed a large bear on Monday of last week. Bruin had been in the vicinity a day or two, watching for a supply of mutton.

Sudden Death in Brunswick.—A telegram from Brunswick, received yesterday afternoon says: "Capt. Thomas Melcher, of this place, while waiting in the depot for the train from Boston this afternoon, was taken with a fit, and expired immediately."—Portland State of Maine.

We are indebted to Crane & Co.'s Bangor and Boston Express for Boston in advance of the mail, per steamer Daniel Webster.

Maine Men in Congress. The State of Maine calls attention to the statement made by New York papers, that Luther C Carter, member of Congress elect for the 1st District in New York, is a native of Maine. He is a son of the late Dr. Thomas Carter of Bethel, of whose large family of sons several have obtained distinction. Hon. TJ Carter of Paris, a former member of Congress from Maine, now deceased, was a brother. Illinois elects two Maine men, E B Washburn and Owen Lovejoy; Wisconsin two, C C Washburn and J F Potter; Oregon one, A F Grover; Massachusetts one, D W Gooch.

Disaster at Sea. Brig Kate Anderson, of Belfast, from Curacoa for New York, before reported put into Charleston 2d inst., for repairs, took a heavy gale from NE to ENE, which lasted for eight days, during which had head of mainmast carried away with part of bulwarks and sails. She ship leaked so badly that it was necessary for the pumps to be constantly going.

Verdict for Personal Injury. At the recent term of the Supreme Court in Franklin County, a lady recovered $700 damages for injury received by the upsetting of a stage coach by swaying to Mr. F. V. Stewart, we believe. The Court ruled that "ordinary" caution was not sufficient in the eye of the law, but that he must exercise the utmost care whilst the most cautious person would take in a given case.

The New Portland Jail. The Argus says the building is most admirably constructed; it occupies a square, and the light and ventilation, therefore, must be perfect. There are 72 cells—36 in each wing—all of them comfortable and convenient, warmed by radiators distributed throughout the building, and safe and secure as granite and iron can make them.—The jailor's house is most admirably arranged in every part. There is a large room for a chapel, where religious services will be performed, and rooms in the upper story which are to be used for a hospital if they should be needed.

Sudden Death. Mrs. Agnes M. Libby, wife of Capt Stephen Libby, died very suddenly at Scarboro on Friday last. She was in a room talking with a child when, suddenly, she fell upon the floor. Medical aid was soon obtained, but it was of no avail—she died in about two hours. Apoplexy is supposed to be the cause of her death. She had lived over our birthdays. Her age was 59 years, 10 months and 9 days.—Argus.

Various Items.

A fast person.—Do you like that wine," asked Mr Commissioner Jones of Coroner Thompson in New York, one day last week. The Coroner smacked his lips and gave an approving wink. "Ah! I knew you'd like it," said the Commissioner, "There's a body in it."

Cut under.—One of the girls in New York, being insulted by a hackman, last week, took out one of her steel hoops and made the blood fly from his face and head. The court considered that she served him about right.

The Latest Patriot.—At Madison, Indiana, recently, a little boy named Charles Peters, recited 2233 verses from the Bible, which he had committed to memory during the evenings of the six preceding days.

A Short Memory.—In offset to the above, we have an account of a man in Milwaukie whose memory is so short that it has not yet reached down to a pair of boots which he bought a year ago and forgot to pay for.

Awful Times out West.—At Salt Lake City, whiskey is 25 cents a drink, and money scarce. There are serious fears that the people may be reduced to a cold water tipple.

Improved Pokers.—In Iowa they have a breed of long-nosed hogs, which are used in the place of breaking-up plows. Place a corncob under ground, on one side of a field, and the grunter will root on a bee-line till he finds it.

The Manly Art of Self Defence.—In Texas, boys ten and twelve years old, may be seen bristling with bowie-knives and pistols.

The Milk of the Cocoa-Nut.—The Boston Courier has been abusing Longfellow's new poem. Whereupon, a correspondent of the Atlas & Bee remarks that Mr Longfellow had, a few days previously, declined subscribing for the Courier.

The Next Congress.—The next House of Representatives will have 236 members—leaving Kansas and Oregon out of the question. It will thus require 119 for a majority. In the elections which have already taken place the following differences are disclosed by a comparison of the present and the next delegations—making no distinction among the nominal Democrats:

States.	Present Congress Dem.	Rep.	Next Congress. Dem.	Rep.
Arkansas,	2	—	2	—
California,	2	—	2	—
Florida,	1	—	1	—
Illinois,	5	4	5	4
Indiana,	6	5	3	8
Iowa,	—	2	—	2
Maine,	—	6	—	6
Missouri,	8	1	7	1
Massachusetts,	—	11	—	11
New York,	13	21	6	26
Ohio,	2	12	6	15
Pennsylvania,	14	10	4	21
North Carolina,	6	—	6	—
Vermont,	—	5	—	3
New Jersey,	3	2	3	3
Michigan,	—	4	1	3
Wisconsin,	—	3	—	3
Delaware,	1	—	1	—
Total,	63	84	47	105

The States yet to elect are Alabama, Connecticut, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, which elect eighty-four members. The best classification we can make of these is, Administration 73, opposition 11. Allowing, then, the members still to be chosen to be like the present, the next House will stand as follows:

	Opp.	Adm.
Already chosen,	106	47
To be elected,	11	73
	116	120

But in the table of those already chosen we have put the anti-Lecompton Democrats under the Administration head; but if we transfer to the opposition such as triumphed over regularly nominated Administration candidates, the account will present a difference of 13, as follows:

	Opp.	Adm.
Already chosen,	118	94
To be elected,	11	13
	129	107

Thus giving an opposition majority of 22.—The opposition gains in Connecticut and Minnesota will probably be balanced by those for the Administration in the South. We have presented separate tables in order to show that the anti-Lecompton Democrats will hold the balance of power in the next House.—Boston Journal.

Cause of the F. F. V's.—Many of our readers have heard of the "First Families of Virginia," but few, we take it, know how the term originated. An exchange explains it thus:

"In the early settlement of that State, it was found impossible to colonize it unless women went there. Accordingly a ship load was sent out, but no planter was allowed to marry one of them until he had first paid one hundred pounds of tobacco for her passage. When the second ship load came no one would pay more than seventy-five pounds for the matrimonial privilege, except where it was a very superior article. Consequently the descendants of all those who were sold for one hundred pounds of tobacco were ranked as the first families, while those who brought but seventy-five pounds are now ranked as the second families; and the reason why no one can ever find any of the second families to be cause you can't get a Virginian to admit that his mother only brought seventy-five pounds of tobacco.

Bogus Financiering. A New York despatch of the 9th says:

Fifty thousand dollars in bills of a bogus concern called the New England Bank of Fairmount, Me., have been put in circulation by several Wall street brokers. Jethro W Uncrill was arrested yesterday. The bills are signed E Rittenhead, President and Martin, Cashier.

Singular Freak of a Dying Man. Mr Bennett Aldridge, one of the oldest citizens of Petersburg, Va., being eighty years of age, died last Friday. He had some time provided for the event, by having his grave prepared and a heavy tomb ready. The grave was dug and lined to the top with granite—the old man having the singular fancy that the devil couldn't scratch through such solid walls.

The Gold Mountain at Vermont. It is told that a Mr Henderson has realized from the dirt he has washed, covering a certain space fifteen to twenty feet square, and taken out from about ten feet deep, a little over four hundred dollars, and that since he has got his pipes, or apparatus in good working condition, he has averaged seven dollars per man a day.

TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

ON 3 DAYS

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE

KANGAROO,

AT NEW YORK.

New York, Nov 9.

Steamer Kangaroo, from Liverpool 27th ult, arrived at this port this afternoon.

Her advices are due day later than those by the steamer Cressalan at St John's, N F.

The British papers raise an indignant cry against France for coercing Portugal into the surrender of the ship Charles George, and the Derby Cabinet are severely censured for not protesting to prevent.

The Hamburg steamship line has been reinforced by the steamers Petropolis and Leviathan. The former leaves Southampton on the 4th inst for New York.

Additional manoeuvres were under orders to proceed from France to Canton.

The Prussian Chambers have unanimously acknowledged the necessity for the regency.

The Prince took the oath when the Parliament adjourned.

Indian news had been received but it was unimportant. The rebels had been defeated with a heavy loss on an Island in the Ganges.

The dates from Calcutta are to Sept 22.—Produce was active. Imports were dull and freights lower.

Hong Kong dates are to the 11th of Sept. Lord Elgin had effected a satisfactory treaty with Japan and returned to Shanghai. Trade at Canton was stagnant. Tea was active at Foo Choo Foo. The Shanghai market was quiet.

Considerable excitement prevailed at Constantinople regarding the presence of the Wasp. The porte had protested against it as the largely exceeds the limits.

A subscription is being organized in Hamburg to present to the Captains of the French and Norwegian vessels who saved the Austria's passengers, an appropriate honorary; each for their exertions on that occasion.

The exact amount of the indemnity which Portugal engages to pay France, in the affair of the captured slaver, is not yet fixed. The London Times, in reference to the subject says: "never was the voice of truth and justice more arrogantly overpowered by mere superiority of physical force, never were rights of a brave and independent nation more recklessly trampled upon, never was the understanding upon which the affairs of Europe, since the peace of 1815 have been conducted, more entirely cast to the winds—for Portugal is left but to fold her arms and record her protest against the violence to which she has been forced to submit—for Europe there remains a precedent fraught with danger." The Times thinks that one most lamentable result of the affair is that France can no longer be counted upon as among those nations who are bent upon discouraging, in every manner, the enormous of the slave trade. The Daily News declares Portugal entitled to the sympathy of all unarmed powers, and that the censure of Europe will deservedly fall on France.

Several of the Parliamentary elections in England have resulted in favor of Liberals.

The Cambridgeshire stakes at New Market were won by Euridice. Fourteen came in 5th.

Five companies of Marines are about to embark from France to Canton, where it is said France intends establishing itself on territory formerly belonging to that government.

Business is generally dull throughout France. There has been a slight decline in the three per cents.

The Customs Conference at Hanover has resolved to abolish the transit duties in the states forming the Zollverein.

Austria is said to be negotiating with Turkey for the cession of port in the sea of Marmora for the Austrian Lloyds.

A despatch from Constantinople, alluding to the affair of the Wabash, says the United States Legation obtained a firman to admit to the Dardanelles only a corvette. On the appearance of the Wabash the Porte drew up a protest, sending a copy to all the Ambassadors. The Wabash had prepared to withdraw.

Advices from India state that the Gwalior rebels were, still, at Seronge, and it was thought would make an attempt to cross the Narbudda.

Liverpool Markets.

Breadstuffs, 27th The breadstuffs market has a declining tendency, and quotations of all articles had receded. Messrs. Richardson, Spence & Co, quote flour for choice, while inferior and the lower descriptions had declined 1s 6d. Western Canal 20 a 21s; Philadelphia and Baltimore 21 a 22s; Ohio 22 a 24s 6d. Wheat is very dull, the best descriptions nominally unchanged, while inferior was offered at considerable reduction. Corn very dull and European 6d lower; American nominal.

The Provision market is generally very dull. Beef dull and prices weak. Pork quiet.

A Battle with the Indians.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.

The Santa Fe mail of the 15th ult. has arrived. Fort Bedfonce dates of Sept. 25, say that a fight occurred between a detachment of troops under Capt Hatch, and a band of Navajo and Seminoles, in which Lascas, a principal chief, and six Indians were killed. Col. Bell would leave about the 28th with his entire command, for Chasen and Tunie's, where, it was thought, the Indians would make a stand. They have heretofore retired before the troops, and are now driving their stock as far westward into the mountains as possible. The enlistment of volunteers is still urgently required.

Marine News.

Nassau, Oct. 30.

Dry Goods, before reported ashore, is full of water, and will probably be a total loss.

Ocean Fashion has been got off with considerable damage, and is undergoing repairs.

St John, N B, Nov. 9.

The bark Alice, arrived here, reports, on the 1st inst, off St Johns, N F, spoke ash Crown, of 424 tons 37 64, with loss of foremast and bowsprit, also had on board 12 of the crew of American ship Semmers, of Boston, which vessel was waterlogged on the 26 h ult. Five of the crew remained on board the ship.

Various Items.

Rochester, N Y, Nov. 9.

Snow and rain have fallen here since early this morning.

New York, Nov. 9.

The Atlantic Bank, of Portland, Maine, is broken out to-day by brokers in Wallst.

Albany, Nov. 9.

The rumors that have been circulated respecting Erastus Corning and the Superintendency of the Treasury, are unfounded. Mr Dorsey is understood to have been called to Washington in consequence of the desire of the President to consult him in relation to the Iowa Governorship, in contemplation of a revision of the U S cabinet in relation to the plan of the reconstruction of the Pacific railroad, both of which movements it is supposed are to be promptly initiated by the administration.

Dover, N H, Nov 9.

The Democrats of Dover are firing thirty three guns from Garrison hill to-night, in honor of the Indiana election.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.

Mr Ryan, the people's candidate in the 1st district, served to-day the legal notice on Mr. Florence, announcing his right to a seat in Congress. Mr Ryan claims 400 majority.

Lathemas at East Machias, by P S J Talbot & Co, brig "Carolina," about 220 tons, intended for the West India trade. Capt. H. Norton, is to be Master.

H S Sewey, master carpenter.

A Narrow Escape.—Grindley Thaxter, of Machias, fell from a wharf, a distance of twelve feet, on to the rocks, Saturday afternoon last, and injured himself badly. He was insensible for several hours, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.—Machias Union.

Great Trieb.—Mr Wm Eleazer of No 18, planted last spring, one peck of California potatoes, about the 14th of April, from which he raised twenty-five bushels of sound potatoes, measured correctly. They were dug the 25th of October.—Machias Union.

A Case of Ingratitude. Buchanan has taken precious good care of Pennsylvania in his diplomatic appointments. She has the ministers to England Austria, Naples, China, Peru, Chili and Equador; three secretaries of legation, and seventeen consulates. Nevertheless, Pennsylvania repudiates "her favorite son." Hard case—isn't it?

Niagara Falls Wearing Away. The path which led beneath the Table Rock to Termination Point, and which those who desired to go under the sheet of falling water traversed for a dollar each, has fallen away, and there is now no means of getting to the Point. It is yet extant. One can still walk about a yard under the cataract, but no further. Foothold is afforded. Ere long, doubtless, now that the stratum of soft rock below has fallen and been pounded to clay, the upper mass will fall. And then another step will have been taken in the slow and tedious course in which Niagara has eaten its way back from Queenstown, and is to wear itself away some ten miles more Chippewa.

A Touching Incident. Up in the Fourth District, New Orleans, says the Delta, lives a man, his infant child, and a matronly, well behaved nanny goat. The nanny is the fussy foster mother of the infant, which the fever, some time since, robbed of its parent progenitor, and she entirely appreciates the peculiar duties which have devolved upon her. When she hears the hungry cry of her helpless little human charge, she runs by its side in an instant, placing her tents at the service of its hungry lips. Frequently the quick ears of the quadrupedal wet nurse hear the child's cry, when she is browsing in the street, at some distance from the house, and leaving her own repast, she darts has lily off to supply the wants of the "motherless babe." Dependent upon her, as Romulus and Remus were of old upon the dugs of their wolfish progenitress. We believe we have told a tolerable strange story above; but truth is stranger than fiction.

India Trade and Morton. This trade, after its long depression, seems to be reviving, if we can judge by the number of vessels engaged in it. We have had recently a large fleet arrived from the various India ports, and there are on the way many more from Calcutta, Manilla, Batavia, &c., and most of them will be due shortly. At Calcutta, September 5th, fifteen ships were loading for Boston; and from August 23d to September 5th, ten ships more had sailed for this port. At the other East India ports, such as Singapore, Batavia, Manilla, Pedang, Penang, &c., a number of vessels were loading for Boston at once, thus showing that this city will soon have to hold its East India trade, and still remain the great American mart for India goods. The city of New York has had several Calcutta arrivals this year, and a ship has recently sailed from Calcutta for Philadelphia.—Boston Traveller.

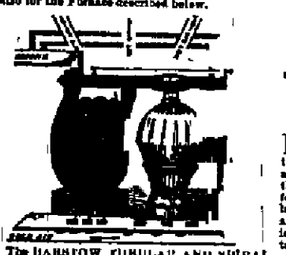
This stove has the smoothest and best castings of any now manufactured.

☞A DIPLOMA was awarded at the State Fair of 1857, in this city, for the above Stove, and also for the Furnace described below.



The HARTFORD TUBULAR AND SPIRAL FURNACE, the VERY BEST FURNACE EVER MADE—which for the simplicity of its parts which are very few and nicely adjusted, and their adaptation to their several purposes, the ease with which the fire can be kindled and extinguished, and the ashes sifted without the dirt, and obviating dust about the cellar, cannot be excelled. So simple are they, indeed, that no change whatever is desirable in them, and they do not require to be patented in England or France, as there are no Furnaces used in either country, but open grates for burning coal.
